

C200 Member Consent and Waiver

The Committee of 200 is the premier women's business leadership organization. Members are expected to support each other by fostering an environment where the exchange of ideas as well as personal and business information is held in the strictest confidence. The C200 Member Consent and Waiver form is being introduced to protect the privacy and confidentiality of the membership and the C200 organization. Members are asked to read and sign this form to confirm they understand and accept the terms and conditions regarding this privacy and confidentiality policy. By signing this form, members also acknowledge that member information is never to be duplicated or shared for any reason outside of C200 business or for solicitation purposes of any kind.

1. Confidentiality

- a. Member Information: The Committee of 200 member information contained in the member Directory, displayed on the C200 website, or as displayed in or at other C200 events, may not be used for any purpose, or for solicitation, outside of authorized C200 business. Member acknowledges that C200 member information is strictly confidential and understands that any breach of this confidentiality requirement is grounds for loss of membership.
- b. Member Conduct: The Committee of 200 and The Committee of 200 Foundation (collectively herein "C200") thrive on the open and honest connection between its members. The respect for each of the other members and the confidentiality of all member discussions, actions and behavior is of paramount importance. All members must be able to rely on each other's confidentiality. Member acknowledges that member statements and other conduct at or in connection with C200-approved activities is strictly confidential and understands that any breach of this confidentiality requirement is grounds for loss of membership.

2. Use of Likeness, Name, Photograph, Video, Quote or Statement

- a. Member authorizes and licenses, except as herein provided, the use by The Committee of 200 and/or The Committee of 200 Foundation (collectively "C200") of Member's likeness, name, photograph, video in which the Member appears and any written or verbal statement made or quote given by Member as captured at any C200 event in any C200 promotional, business and information materials. After any such likeness, photograph, video, quote or statement is used by C200, in the event Member notifies C200 of any objection to any such specific use, C200 will make commercially reasonable efforts to avoid such specific use (i.e., any image, writing or voice of Member to which Member has objected) by ceasing the use to which Member has objected in the future preparation of such C200 materials. Member acknowledges and understands that no compensation will be paid for providing this authorization or for any such use and that Member has hereby waived any claim for breach of Member's right of publicity or similar right in respect to any such use.

The person signing below acknowledges that she understands and agrees to the above provisions and agrees to be bound by the bylaws, policies and norms of behavior applicable to C200 members.
